MASTER SCHOOL – GENIUS EDITION

You've been a great friend to me, you've helped me through the good times and the bad. But life goes on but it wouldn't be the same with out you as a friend!

I will never miss you (sika) I will miss the hell out of you cause you're a good friend of mine that helps me out in times of gum messes and advice from friends to a really nice person that I know and I'm glad that you know that

To a very nice girl that I like a lot and had many good times with. I want to thank you for what you are and the way you are because you made my senior year in High School a little bit better every day. I'm sorry but we can be good friends! I really do hope you find the right person for you and I hope whoever it is will make you happy! I am really glad Ricky introduced me to you because you are very nice and I hope we will stay friends. Well I hope that you remember the good times we had not the bad and I wish you all of the luck in the world. Good luck in the rest of your days at J.M.H.S

Col

to a girl who
I like a lot
I had fun
this year

but nice happy I know girl of year for a luck and good friend
He knows of your friendship
I know it

friendship
I know it
I know it
I know it
I know it

and very nice
I have good looking girl.
I know you for a long time. Good Luck in whatever you do

To a girl who is almost as crazy as I am!
Good luck in the summer, life,
and anything else! Thanks for beginning!

I've known you a long time and you get nicer every year. Keep on acting crazy!

You have been a good friend and I hope you make good friends cause you deserve them. Even though you, me, Kelly & have been used by - you know who. She's not a good friend. I think everybody's got used by her good once.

P.S. Sorry for the writing!

I'm so glad that we are still close friends this year.
YOU ARE SO NICE &
SO pretty, it makes me side! You are so much to everyone, I wish I could be like that!
Believe me, I've tried
A million times! You Better call me this summer, really, cause I don't want to be a total loner this summer! You've been so nice and I'm sure you'll have a great year
J.M.!! How can you not, you're so sweet!
Forever,

~~What's up?~~
How are you? Fine I'm sure!
This year has been good. How are things with you and Kevin? You make a cute couple! I wish I had you in more classes. Drama was fun. Remember that play we did? Was it neat or what?
Just think soon we'll be freshmen and can't wait. You are a very nice person, thanks for all the candy/gum you've given me over this year. Some day I'll repay you. Just think the summer will be here. The peaches, boys, ~~men~~ (man) tan bodies, (neat huh?) Well keep in touch over the summer maybe we can go to the pool or something.
Thanks for always being there when I had problems you helped me to solve a lot. Well I guess that's everything. Keep in touch!

Precious Pursuits

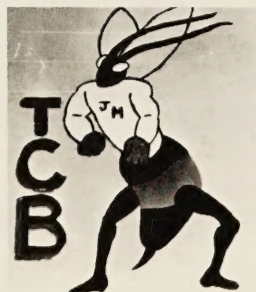

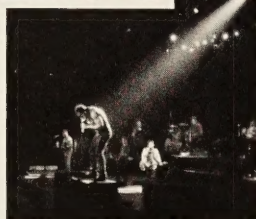

It was a year of big events . . . of victory smiles and victory cries. Names in the news were often familiar — Reagan, Mondale, Clara Peller, Baby Fae, Andropov and Chernenko. Places in the news were often strange — El Salvador and Nicaragua, Ethiopia, Beirut and Bhopal.

It was an election year. President Reagan was victorious, but for the first time a woman, Rep. Geraldine Ferraro, and a black, Rev. Jesse Jackson, seriously ran for national office. Locally, students learned the election process and the workings of Congress.

Aside from the AP Hill dioxin scare and the gas spill on Rt. 301, major local issues included a regional library battle, annexation, and a "JACKET" on the Jayem wall. Around Jayem though, our library was well stacked and well used; annexed students were integrated; and, student created "JACKETS" adorned interior walls.

In the entertainment world, Michael Jackson was upstaged by Prince and his stable of stars, and, the "Boss," Bruce Springsteen. Hollywood had its share of blockbusters, including "Ghostbusters."

Athletically, the Olympics made headlines around the world. Big names included Carl Lewis and Mary Lou Retton. Here at Jayem, our athletes worked hard to strive for the local gold. Perhaps our major recognition came on the grid-iron. The 49ers had nothing on us. We indeed were the bearers of victory smiles and victory cries. But through it all, whether this year or the next —

The Long & the Short of It Is . . .

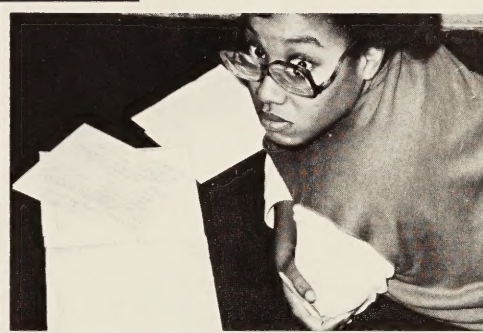

Many things never change. Our values at Jayem remain the same:

We value our studies.

We value the eagle.

We value the almighty telephone.

We value warmth and friendship.

FADS: The New Edition

THE VELCRO fastened sneakers lost popularity this year and were replaced by "Fatboys" laces.

Instead of looking like everyone else, INDIVIDUALITY was the key. Some items were basic in everyone's wardrobe, but it was how one put them together to give one his/her own special style. A button or an earring was a basic, but the button told of one's favorite star, and the earring, one's own design. The twist-a-beads allowed one to coordinate colors. The hair styles were one's own creation. The young men definitely became more style conscious — from head to toe.

When classes changed at JM, there was excitement in the halls — a visual treat for the spectator and participant.

TRIVIA QUESTION: Morris Day danced the bird, but what bird did Prince sing about?

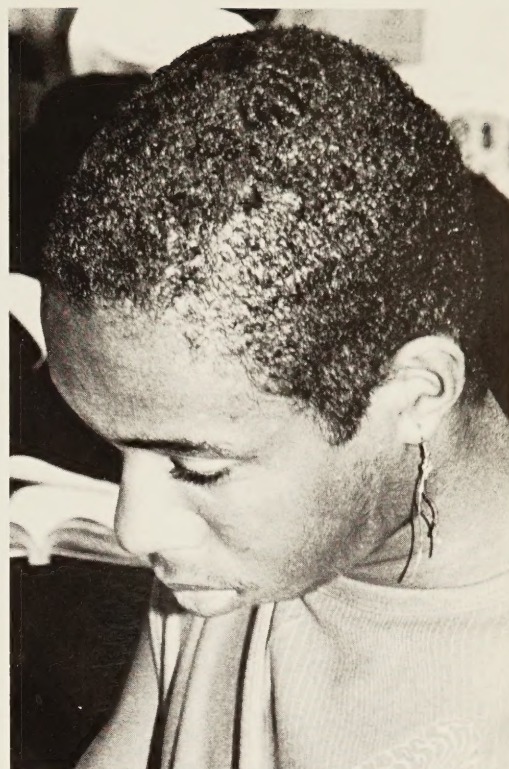

A SPIKED leather neckpiece and dark glasses make Brian Haynes an inspiring figure.

A "RAIDERS OF THE LOSTARK" hat tops out the layered look. With baggy pants and hanging belt, Jeryl Rose is ready to "Go-Go".

LOVERS of "The Boss", Ms. Egner and Dawn Reynolds are "Born In The U.S.A.!"

MANY FELLOWS, including Terry King, adorn themselves with earrings.

"BUTTON, button, who's got the button?" Every good PRINCE fan.

MINI-SKIRT, lace gloves, and stockings make Eva Morgan a trend setter.

JASON WILSON models his unique hair cut.

HOLLY PARKER and Mary Kay Apperson do a scene in the Christmas Play.

JOHN FRANKLIN and Kathleen Cooke demonstrate their acting abilities.

No Set Backs

A theatre production means a series of deadlines . . . for costumes, set, props, learning lines, lights, etc. Regardless of any problem, the show must go on.

TRIVIA QUESTION: Who played the dragon in "The Magic Well?"

JACK THOMPSON portrays Ole King Cole in the Magic Well.

KATHLEEN COOKE and Leland Middleton help make scenery for a play.

MAC MACCORMICK as the Scrooge shows the audience his new look.

Sing Sing a Song

SONYA COAKLEY, Felicia Koty, Pauline Felder, and VeLisa Davidson prepare for their next performance.

Band on the Run

Hard work was the key. Our band gave a totally different performance for every half time show. In the age of corps-type presentations, most area bands developed one presentation for the year. We kept the crowd surprised with Top-40 selections of tunes such as "When Doves Cry," "Thriller," and "Tonight I Celebrate My Love." Pom Pon girls and flagettes performed exciting dance steps. Our band was a "thriller."

Trivia question: Who is the Jayem alumnus who does much of the Choreography for the front groups of the band?

THE GIRLS of the band take a moment's rest during the game.

Band Director: Ronald Jordan. Drum Major: K. Weldon. Band: L. Andrews, R. Armstead, E. Blackmon, H. Braxton, E. Brennan, M. Burch, E. Carr, K. Carter, V. Carter, A. Coleman, J. Daniel, K. DeRonda, L. J.M.'s band may not have 101 trumpets, but Damian Samuel and Kevin Tate are still music men.

THE POM-PONS and Flagettes dance to Prince's "When Doves Cry" during the Pep rally at Maury.

JOHN PROVO, Mike Burch and Clark Sessions involve themselves in their music.

DANNY SULLIVAN TUNES up for a pep rally.

THE BAND plays "I Celebrate My Love."

HIGH STRUNG

The strings curriculum was expanded this year. A higher level, an advanced level, was added with the Chamber Strings.

Seniors who used to finish with Silver Strings now had something new and exciting — Chamber Strings. They added to our already untarnished reputation. They proved, without a doubt one of the finest strings programs in the area is right here at our own James Monroe. With the addition of a higher level of instruction we had a fuller sound that most other schools lack.

Strings had many obligations this year. Throughout the year they played various concerts for the community, the Senior Class Musical, and for their own enjoyment. But they always managed to keep up their academic studies and keep the music coming out.

TRIVIA QUESTION: What Senior Class musical did Strings play for this year?

In Strings class, students rehearse the score for the Senior Musical. Chris Ryder plays piano while a recurring Aude Mann makes notations.

DIRECTOR JAN WHITE is ready for the count down.

The violin section is alive with "Sound of Music."

Cultural Delights

English, French, German, Latin, and Spanish were not just languages, but cultures full of delicious delights to discover. Students and teachers tasted French cuisine at the annual French Club party where Yule logs, "le bouche de Noel," full of cream, chocolate, and cake and cream puffs

FRENCH AND GERMAN students gather with Mrs. Kelly to make goodies. This is a sweet Santa's workshop!

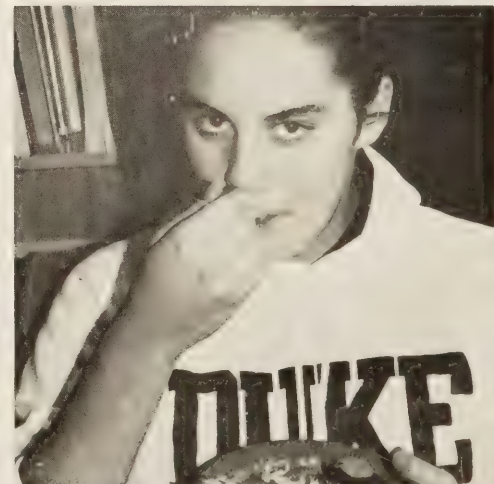

SUSAN BENNETT tastes the food prepared by the French students, "bon appetit."

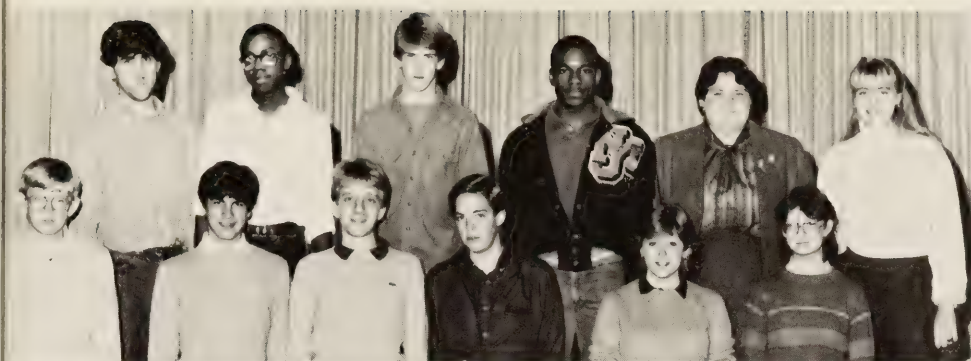

and other delicacies were sampled.

The German Club, on the other hand, enjoyed Mrs. Kelly's hospitality and learned to make "Lebkuchenhauser," the gingerbread house.

The Spanish students had a Mexican fiesta of tacos, burritos, and flan. What a treat!

TRIVIA QUESTION: Where do all gingerbread recipes come from?

MR. THOMAS, Clark Sessions, and Susan Bennett stand in line at the "buffet" table for the French Club Christmas party.

THE FINAL PRODUCT! Tom Reeder holds the house where Hansel and Gretel could have found the wicked witch.

VICE PRESIDENT Alice Merchant lights a candle during the ceremony. Secty: David Anderson, Treasure: Greg Wagner look on.

Installation Rituals

Many organizations set high standards for student participation. When students met the standards, they were charged to take an oath to uphold those ideas. The oath was sworn in all sincerity. The ritual made it solemn. The lighted candles. The pin or key. The presence of family and friends. The feeling of pride and as with all rituals, the ceremony was followed with joy and celebration and food.

Elbow Grease

Although most extracurricular activities are about fun, they are about work, too. The fun came from learning by doing and from with the teacher in a less formal environment.

The work was necessary to keep the fun projects going and to provide vital service to the school and community. The VICA club, a new organization this year, was such an example. The students used their manufacturing skills to make and sell tool boxes; they simonized cars, took Christmas trees to the hospital, and participated in many recreational activities.

TRIVIA QUESTION: What does Ms. A's license plate say?

CALVIN MILLS and Mr. McFall apply a little elbow grease.

TURTLE WAX time for Calvin.

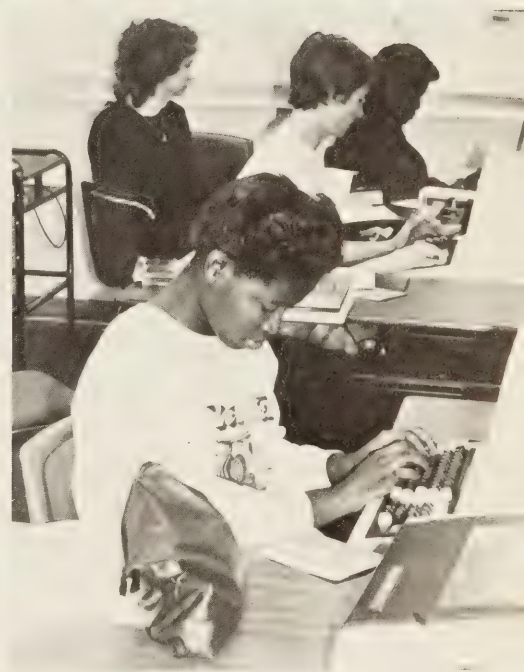

IT TAKES THE mighty muscles of Steve Rollins and Mr. Young to load this tool box.

It's In The Mix

Healthy bodies and healthy minds went hand in hand. Students in the Future Homemakers of America put in many hours to cater school affairs and prepare holiday treats that are both nutritious and delicious. Students Against Drunk Driving worked to promote students' awareness of the danger of mixing alcohol and gasoline. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Girls' Athletic Association combined strong bodies with good will and spirit.

JACKIE CHRISTOPHER has a batch of cookies ready for the oven.

Rest of the Story

The rest of the story was the part that did not meet the eye. The decisions on which story to put where, the hassle of an upcoming deadline, the mixing of chemicals in the darkroom, the argument about a title headline, the rewrite and correction and edit. But somehow, it always came together and the staffs were rewarded by their products.

TRIVIA QUESTION: What's a Basilisk?

SOLICITATION IS A MAJOR part of any publication as Tom Young, member of the Spotlight, knows.

YES, this is the Basilisk crew brainstorming at another meeting.

No Pain No Gain

In pursuit of the body beautiful, guys, and gals pumped iron, counted sit-ups, curled, and pressed onward. In the 70's thin was in, but "health" was the watch word of the eighties. Even though many of the weightlifting club members were members of the "powerful" varsity team, a varied group of students "exercised" everyday after school. A "strong" thank you to the Athletic Boosters for providing this "mighty" facility.

STEPHANIE GRIFFIS works at building her legs on the leg press.

FOUR LADIES build their biceps.

JASPER WILLIAMS pumps iron the hard way.

TRIVA QUESTION: Who is this guy?

THE "JAZZ MAN" prepares for destruction.

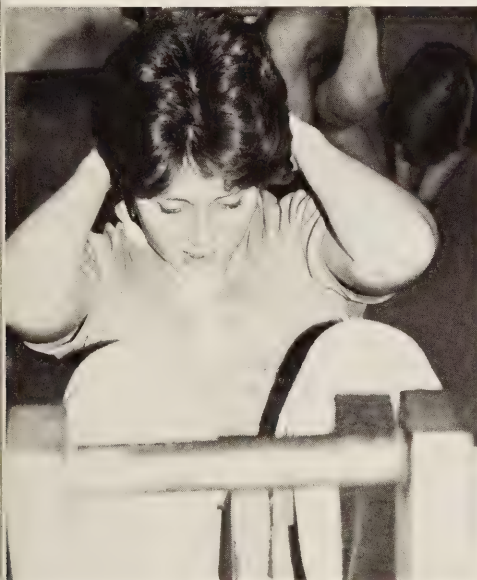

WEIGHTLIFTERS: Sitting: Andy Withers, Antonio Coghill, Ronnell Coghill, Sean Jordan, Deon Johnson, Tim Stewart, Kirk Thompson, Mark Willis, David Tracy, Tim Margrave. Second Row: Brian Brown, Carmine Palumbo, Calley Farmer, Austin Merrill, Jerry Trice, Doug Gray, Pierce Whiteside. Third Row: Tom Young, Tom Rhodemyer, Gary Boxley, Kevin Aylesworth, Chris Mills, Mike Bowers, Richmond McDaniel, David Ellis, Ben Lawynas.

ANTHONY KAY does things the "Special Kay" way.

BEN LAWRYNAS puts his back into strengthening his muscles on the hip slede.

BRIAN WASEM works hard as he builds up his arm strength with a 70 lb barbell.

LISA MANN does sit-ups to tighten her tummy.

ALWAYS BUSY

If you felt the teams had a busy schedule, so did the cheerleaders. Four squads — fall and winter, varsity and jayvee — kept our spirits high. They cheered through playoff football games, girls' and boys' basketball games, set up for the sports banquets, honored their parents, made spirit banners, and practiced practiced. Exciting dimensions were added by their somersaults and aerials, and the newly created cheers. At the top of their priorities was school work. Often their books accompanied them on buses and during breaks. Their dedication was a proud example for all Jackets.

HALF-TIME festivities include recognizing the parents of the cheerleaders. L-R: Mrs. McMillin and Caroline; Mrs. Sullivan and Kathryn; Mr. Parker and Denise, and Jeryl's mom, Mrs. Theresa Rose.

HOPE MORRIS flashes her winning smile.

CHEERLEADERS STUDY their book of routines to prepare for an up-coming game.

AT BASE: Kathryn Sullivan, 2nd: Holly Parker, Standing: Jeryl Rose (Captain), Denise Parker (Co-Captain), Bending: Jeana Ryckman (Co-Captain), Top: Caroline McMillin.

ELIZABETH MCDANIEL, Karen Young and Libba Greenup practice a new maneuver for an upcoming game.

THESE JACKETS, ready to "take care of business," wait for the homecoming game against Orange.

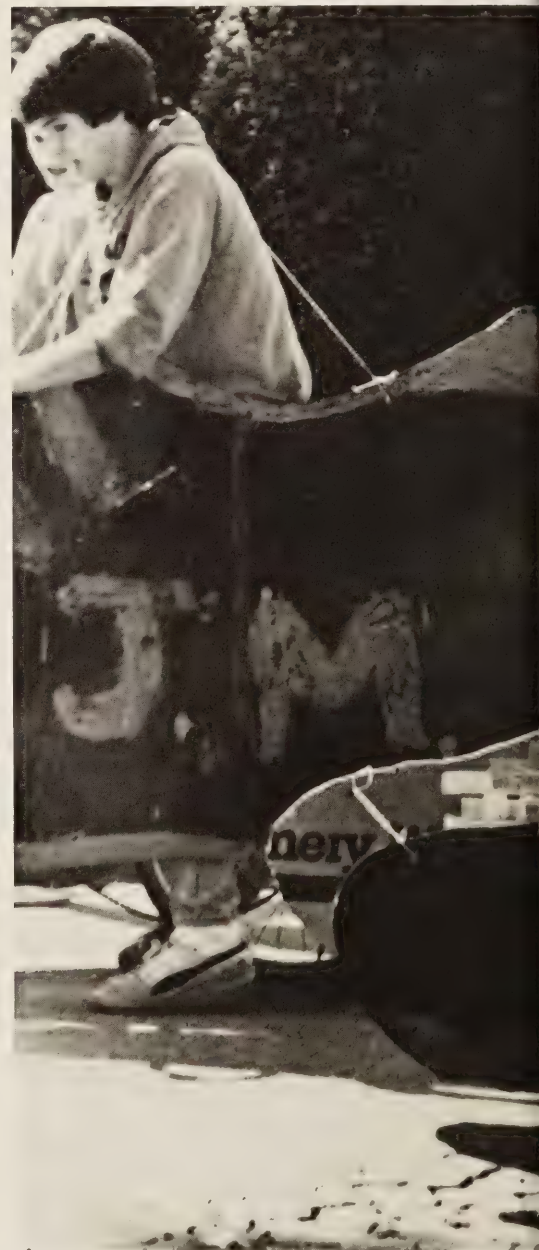

GARY BOXLEY is all smiles because he knows the Jackets' are going to have a winning football season. He was crowned Homecoming King at the game.

TRINA BUNDY is ready for winter sports. She's not letting the weather keep her away from the games. Trina was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1984-85.

"WHEN DOVES CRY" Plays the band while the Pom Pons and flagettes perform. Orange felt like crying.

THE MUSIC plays and these students are planning on dancing by starlight. The Homecoming theme is Lucky Star.

Homecoming '84: Lucky Star

The homecoming theme this year was "Lucky Star," and lucky it was. The French reached for the stars of a Parisian night on their float and won first place in the float contest.

The football team found a lucky star and put another win in their pocket as they "squeezed Orange."

Gary Boxley and Trina Bundy were the "stars" of the night: King and Queen of homecoming. What better way to end a star struck day?

THE GERMAN CLUB shares an Octoberfest with the rest of Jayem's students.

THE G.A.A. angels get it together in the homecoming parade.

THE RUNNERS put their best foot forward.

Flipping and 'a Flying

Although there were only seven gymnasts on the varsity squad this year, they worked extra hard to compensate for the lack of numbers. These gymnasts were Kim Ledbetter, Caroline McMillin, Holly Parker, Wendy Parker, Carla Shover, Kathryn Sullivan, and Ann Woodward. They were especially strong in the floor exercises, performing exciting routines with daring twists and somersaults. Another area of strength was the vault. For the first time in several years, we had a junior varsity squad which promises depth for next year.

TRIVIA QUESTION: What American gymnast captured everyone's heart in the 1984 Olympics?

KATHRYN SULLIVAN psyches out the competition before her bar routine.

CAROLINE McMILLIN prepares for her dismount from the uneven bars.

CAPTAIN CARLA SHOVER concentrates while doing scales on the balance beam in the meet against Courtland.

COCO MANN, injured in a car accident, comes out to support her teammates.

WENDY PARKER and Coach Mike Howes discuss strategy before competition.

JUNIOR VARSITY member, Betsy Atkinson, hugs her teddy for support before her performance.

What a Racket!

Last year's girls' tennis team was plagued with injuries. The number one player, Ann Rob Smith, was out for most of the season. Jeryl Rose and Mandy Viverette were also hurt; however, they soon returned to action.

This year's team should fare better than last year's. After losing the number one seeded player, they quickly adjusted and became stronger.

This year's racket will be made by the returning members of the team.

Trivia question: What is tennis elbow?

TOM YOUNG plays the net while back man, Richard Kruse, smashes one during practice.

SCOTT STARLING yells, "Service," and comes down hard for an ace.

SHERRI WARE puts body English in her backhand.

Swinging Style

The James Monroe girls' softball team had its ups and downs last year. For the first seven games, the team was without a pitcher. The team members alternated, playing out in the field and pitching. Finally Kate Bedford returned to the mound!

Although it was not a great season over all, individual members of the team did well. Katrina Bundy has hopes of a better year this year because the team has "more depth."

The best games for the team were the Caroline and Louisa games, letting the girls show their abilities to hang on!

Off to the Playoffs

The Yellow Jackets became the Battlefield District Champs and the playoffs were the height of everyone's thoughts. The Jackets put their all into practices and the thought of defeating Broadway. After approximately a 120 mile drive, with much determination and ambition the Yellow Jackets T.C.B. and defeated Broadway. With that victory behind them, the Jackets started practice with only one thing in mind, the defeat of Hanley! Well prepared for the football game against the Hanley Judges, the Jackets jogged on to the field in high spirits. The Jackets put up a good fight against Hanley holding them to only a one point win. The score was 7 to 6, the AG-ONY of defeat! At the fall sports banquet, Zivan Smith and Tim Margrave received the award for the most valuable players. Jasper Williams and Alan Miller received special awards, Jasper, "The Jazz Man" Williams received the Dennis Johnson award and Alan "The Bull Miller" received the Ralph "Tuffy" Hicks award.

T.C.B.

"Taking Care of Business" was the 1984 varsity football team's slogan, and take care of business they did. The team moved from being unranked to being 6th in the state division. Coached by Joe Lanford, Bob Burch, Rick Serbay, Joe Smith, Chip Sudduth, and Emory Turner, the Jackets took care of Courtland's winning streak, and attained a place in the play offs by winning the Battlefield District.

The spirit of the students went out of control after the Courtland game. James Monroe snapped, cracked, and popped through the Cougar's offense and defense alike. Suddenly, Jayem was the team to "meat" and defeat. But we prevailed, losing only to AAA team Stafford and tying North Stafford. Our record stood at an amazing seven wins, only one loss, and one tie.

The season was remarkable, winning the district, beating Courtland, and getting into the state playoffs. But there is still more to come as we made it to the state playoffs.

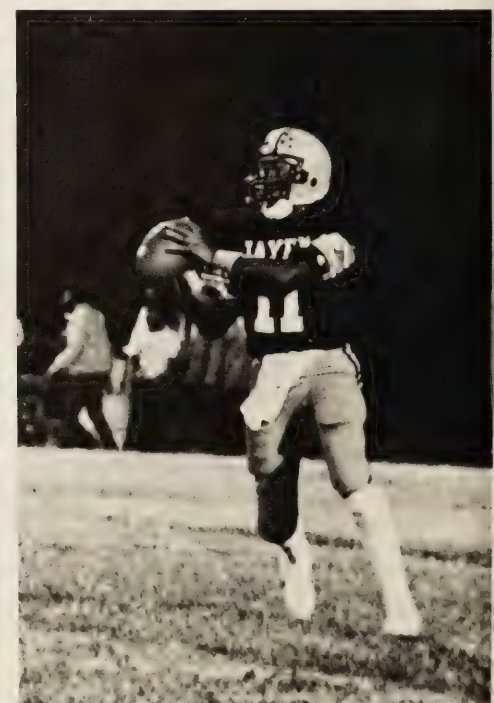

Trivia Question: How many straight games had Courtland won before Jayem snapped its streak?

8th grade & J.V. football

The Baby Bumblebees were on a roll! They won four of their seven games. The sting was on! No way could Jayem's football teams be stopped this year. None of the three teams had a losing year.

The J.V. team had a good year, splitting their eight games. No way could any one call Jayem's teams bad any more. We had finally come out of the shell and stung our opponents until there were none left.

This year's golf team "teed" off to its first victory against Spotsylvania. They followed this "stroke" of luck with "fore" more wins.

The team will be sorry to lose Tim Cash next year; however, since he is the only graduating member, his loss will be replaced by the enthusiastic underclassmen. Kirk Edwards was #1 on the team this year and will hopefully continue to do well in the following years. Second in the district, the team finished on a low note in the regionals.

Stroke of Luck

AMY SOKOL waits for a chance to get in on the action.

LIZ LUCEY walks away after a hard play, her shirt tail hanging. Getting ready to take a break, Lynn Mercer removes her mouth piece.

Is it a stroke of luck to belong to the jayvee hockey team? Definitely, ask any jayvee player. And . . . much of the luck did not stem from play on the field. The fun was in the ritual. Honey and shaving cream. Break dancing and dead bugging. But, the ritual made the team stick together sweetly. Luck was on their side, but so was a lot of fun and hard work.

Trivia question: What is the diameter of a hockey ball in metric units?

THE TEAM huddles in spirit before starting the game. The JV girls enjoy this more than playing "dead bug."

MARY JANE WESTERBERG AND CARRIE HALLBERG, goalies for the varsity team, well-protected by their equipment, wait for practice to start.

ANN POWELL attacks the ball and dares the opponent to tread her turf.

I ain't afraid of no Goalie!

With pads to make a girl look like an abominable snow woman, a hockey goalie could scare a ball away. But in spite of the bulk of her uniform which protects her from the slices of the hockey sticks, the goalie had to move like a graceful and efficient snow monster. But that's the price for a winning team, as goalie Carrie Hallberg found out.

Along with the wins there are bruises and cuts and hurt feelings. But that was okay with our team, which had a winning season.

KATHLEEN COOKE charges the ball and yells, "Get away!."

CARRIE "Hossberg in a Cage" Hallberg exits the cage for a breather.

BARBARA CUDDY asks, "People, are we good or what?" Helen Poole, Christy Brown, Mary Kate Pasto, and Leslee Dunnigan smile in response.

BETTEEN CHRISTOPHER holds the weight of the game in her hands.

Holding the World in Your Hands

The varsity basketball world was one built on speed and quickness. With lack of size, fast hands and fast breaks were the compensatory factors. Steals, quick tieups, fine passes made the team's character. The junior varsity survived a difficult season, and shows promise for the coming years.

SURROUNDING himself with the girls' basketball team is MR. GRIFFIN'S idea of a good game plan.

PAULA COLEMAN wants a hands down victory against the Knights.

JV PLAYER Yvonne Lucas, whips a fancy pass down court.

TRINA BUMBREY out jumps the competition for a rebound.

ANGELA JOHNSON gets set to bounce past around an opponent.

Scrambling and Shooting

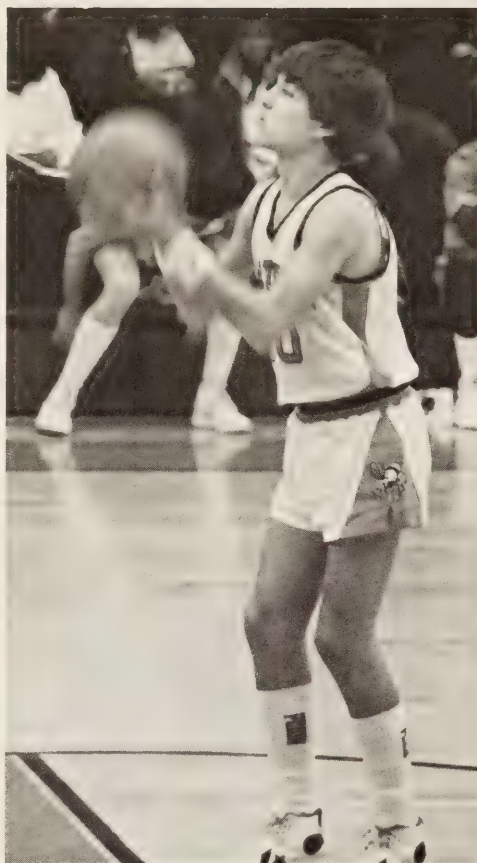

Seniors dominated the varsity squadron: Gary Adams, Greg Alison, Jeff Durante, Cameron Jackson, Richard Lewis, Anthony Washington, and Jason Wilson. Underclassmen on the team were Brian Hawthorne, Shawn Holland, Deon Johnson, and Richmond McDaniel. A new coach was the helm, Mr. Sudduth. He shuttled his scramblers and shooters to maximize the talents of a team which lacked height in comparison to other Battlefield teams. Mr. Sudduth has hopes for a +500 year.

"Cross Country and Track." When someone says this to you, what is your first thought? Running? How about jumping hurdles, springs — not just long distance running — high jumps and long jumps? At James Monroe we had somebody in each field. Jason Wilson high jumped; Holly Parker ran track, and Ruth Slaboda ran cross country. Ruth Slaboda, who finished first in district for three years straight, made sixth in the region, the only Jacket to qualify for state: she came in seventeenth. Seniors in the Lead

The seniors, by virtue of their "seniority", were automatically the leaders in most school activities.

The student government was led by Jeana Ryckman. The senior class President was Jeryl Rose. All athletic clubs were stronger due to seasoned veterans. Seniors volunteered to give blood, sing songs, and cheer. In general they set the tone for the entire school.

SENIOR PLANNING COUNCIL: First Row: Jeryl Rose, Diane Rosser, Anne Carey Barton, Katrina Bundy. Second Row: David Ellis, Karen Weldon, Pam Lindsey, Tim O'Conner, Alice Merchant, Alan Miller.

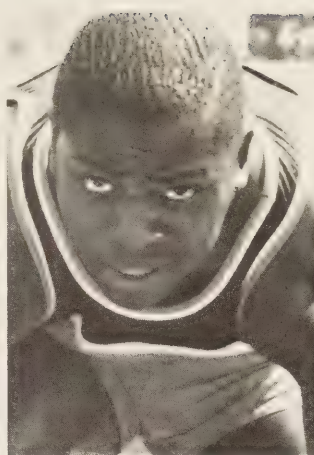

DAVID TRACEY gives us a wistful look during the football game.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Diane Rosser, Karen Weldon, Jeryl Rose.

PETE LEHARDY has his pressure checked before donating blood.

MARY KATE PASTO eyes the ball on a drive to the goal.

PEERING FROM under the faceguard is a fired up Alan Seay.

ROMEL TURNER concentrates on the tape and listens for the starter's gun.

AMY MIDKIFF awaits instructions at an afternoon band practice.

IN FOOD SERVICE class, Lisa Simms thinks on her recipe.

ANOTHER shot of Romel Turner — this time in a different setting with his ever present cap.

SUSIE DUGGINS says "I just called to say I love you."

READY FOR parts in the senior play are Jimmy Mercer, Ted Sniffin, and Greg Allison.

MICHELLE HABERMANN takes a cheering Break at a girl's basketball game.

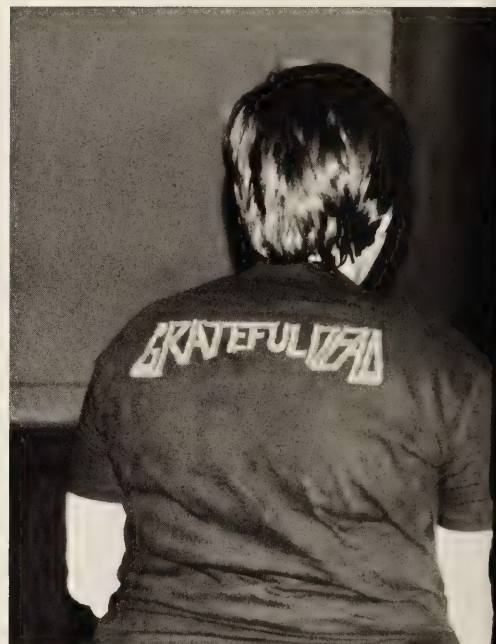

THE senior section cuts loose at a pep rally.

FELICIA WILLIAMS displays her beautiful smile.

THE MOST intelligent two people in the Senior Class, Tim Malamphy and Alice Merchant, work, work, work.

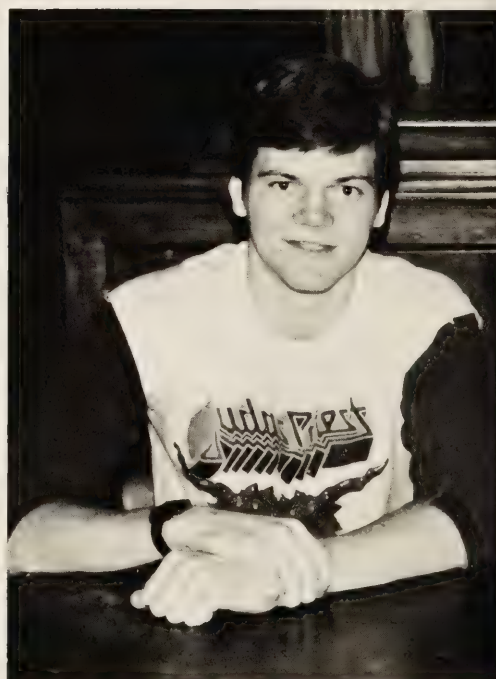

KATRINA BUNDY and Anthony Washington are the most athletic in our class. We get their picture just before they started baseball practice.

Super Seniors

All seniors were special, but, in some cases, some stand out. Maybe it was the most talkative, or the quietest. But always something stood out. The senior Class of 1985 had its fair share of "stand outs." There was the Senior Class Musical, the excitement of beating Courtland, and the anticipation of graduation. We had Senior Class meetings for Caps and gowns, announcements, and individual achievements. Some joined the Armed Forces, got an early admission to the college they most wanted to attend, or got a job. But in each case it was what they wanted. And that is the excitement of graduating from high school. No matter how sad you are to leave high school you know the rest of your life is ahead of you.

TRIVIA QUESTION: The life of party winners are not pictured here. Why?

THE TWO QUIETEST people in our Senior Class are Greg Wagner and Debbie Smith. But they wouldn't tell you that.

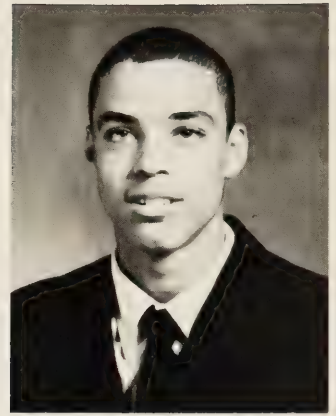

SCOTT WAGNER and Michele Mullins were voted Non conformists. Do you wonder why?

THE BEST DRESSED couple is Greg Allison and Ann Powell. They could also be voted most cheerful.

JERYL ROSE and Tim Malamphy were voted most likely to succeed. Jeryl is Senior Class president and a member of NHS. Tim participates in numerous sports and is active in NHS.

In Pursuit of Understanding

These eighth grade English classes provide warm environments which allow teachers and students to share a special closeness. The foundation is laid here — grammar, communication-oral and written, literary interpretation and understanding to build on throughout one's high school career.

THESE STUDENTS, Jennifer Jones, Tara May, Monica Johnson, and Tonya Bundy, often move to the front and sit on the floor to receive the full impact of Ms. Cordell's instruction.

Up and Coming

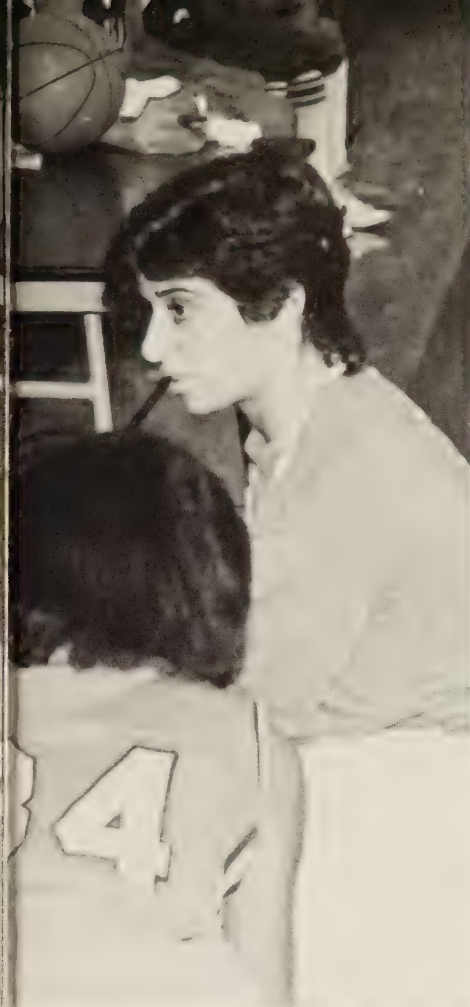

Both 8th grade teams practiced hard and played hard. They show promise for rising to next year's jayvee teams. Boy team members included Eric Armstead, Robby Ayres, Marcus Beale, Richard Christopher, Darrell Durante, Brian Fisher, Allen Keller, Glen Landford, Hunter Moore, Eric Noakes, Marcus Pomeroy, Jack Rose, Matt Tobin, Benjamin Watson, and Andy Withers. The girls' team did not have the depth, but made up for it with dedication.

Mr. J. Richard Garnett, Jr.

On TOP of It All

Budget, books, and buses. The Central Office staff and School Board took time and interest to make our school run smoothly. For the first time James Monroe students rode buses which were owned by the city. Rental textbooks were also available for the first time to students. Whether deciding what lights would shine on our winning team at Maury, what insignia the "Jackets" would have, or what kind of weather would be bad enough to let us stay home for, the School Board and Central Office staff helped "make it better."

TRIVIA QUESTION: Who decides when we get out for a snow day?

Up With People

Qualification for Up With People

- Be prepared to travel
- Be between 18-26 years of age
- Be willing to do hard work
- Be musically talented and to like people! Up With People first visited Fredericksburg in 1979. This year each one of the 125 cast and crew members met the above qualifications and many more. Fredericksburg gave a warm welcome to the Up With People crew during their three day tour of our town. During the three days the group visited churches, gave school performances and performed a show for the community.

The cast of Up With People stayed at

THIS IS Up With People in action. In their three Jayem performances, they presented from 50's music to Van Halen, country to classics, from inspirational to international folk music.

homes of community members. A sea of luggage appeared in front of James Monroe High School. Each host family had a "code name" to identify themselves to their Up with People person. Each family received an important landmark as well as an identifying symbol in historical Fredericksburg to teach their visitors about our city.

TRIVIA QUESTION: Where were the Up With People Group going next?

SCHOOL DENTIST, Dr. Thompson packs up his quests. The packing and unpacking is a weekly occurrence for the cast members.

IMMEDIATELY after their arrival, the Up With People people are entertained by the Monroe Singers.

PEOPLE who had agreed to host the international cast come to Jayem's auditorium to meet and greet. The hosts carry signs with their code names.

PROF. DICK HANSEN with his creative sign awaits the arrival.

A BIGGER problem than finding one's host/guest, is finding one's luggage. Mrs. Harrington and her guest seem to have solved the maze.

MONROE SINGER Chris Ryder often doubles as pianist for the strings orchestra.

ON THIS NUMBER the girls kick up their heels.

GIDDY-UP, um papah, um papah, mao-mao.

Putting on the Ritz

Tuxedos, cummerbunds, taffeta, and bows. The Monroe Singers truly put on the Ritz this year. They were our main good will ambassadors performing for the entire community. Just as Up With People carried its message around the world, the Monroe Singers did the same locally. In photographs here, our ambassadors welcome the Up With People cast and crew upon arrival to Fredericksburg.

TRIVIA QUESTION: Two Monroe Singers made the All-State Choir. Name them.

TENORS and basses are featured here.

MARK MAYNARD'S heart is on fire for "Elvira" Burnette.

Brian Hawthorne, Victor Logan, Lisa Andrews, LaVonda Taylor, Deon Johnson, Virginia Burnette, Pam Lynch, Alana Holland, Heather Govenides, and Dawn Reynolds sing from the musical 1776.

MONSIEUR JEAN-PIERRE CHAUVELON, a journalist from Marseille, France, here to cover American elections, speaks with the advanced French classes.

DR. BULENT ATALAY, Mary Washington College professor, is the science scholar of the month. He lectures on Science in Nature.

MR. JACKSON is all set to go on the afternoon bus run.

AS STUDENTS exit, Mrs. Eley is ready to make her next run.

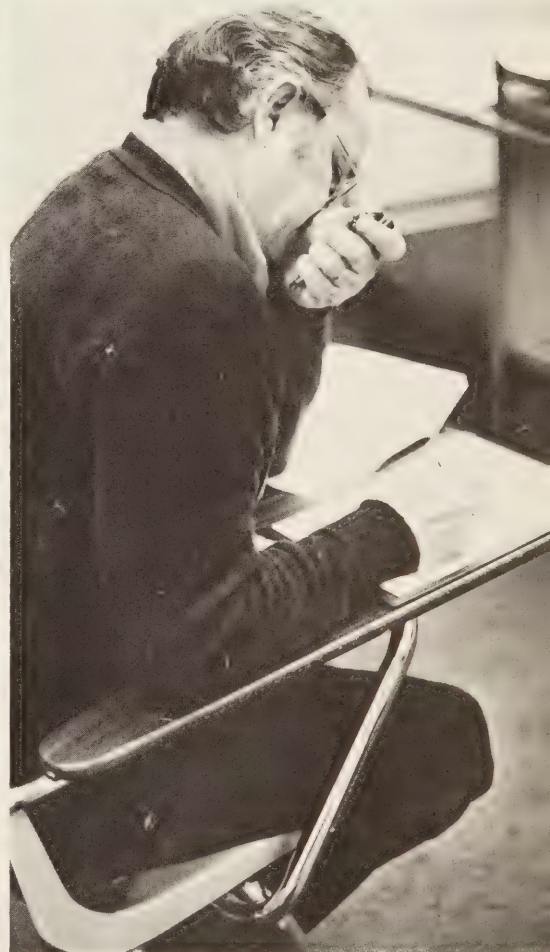

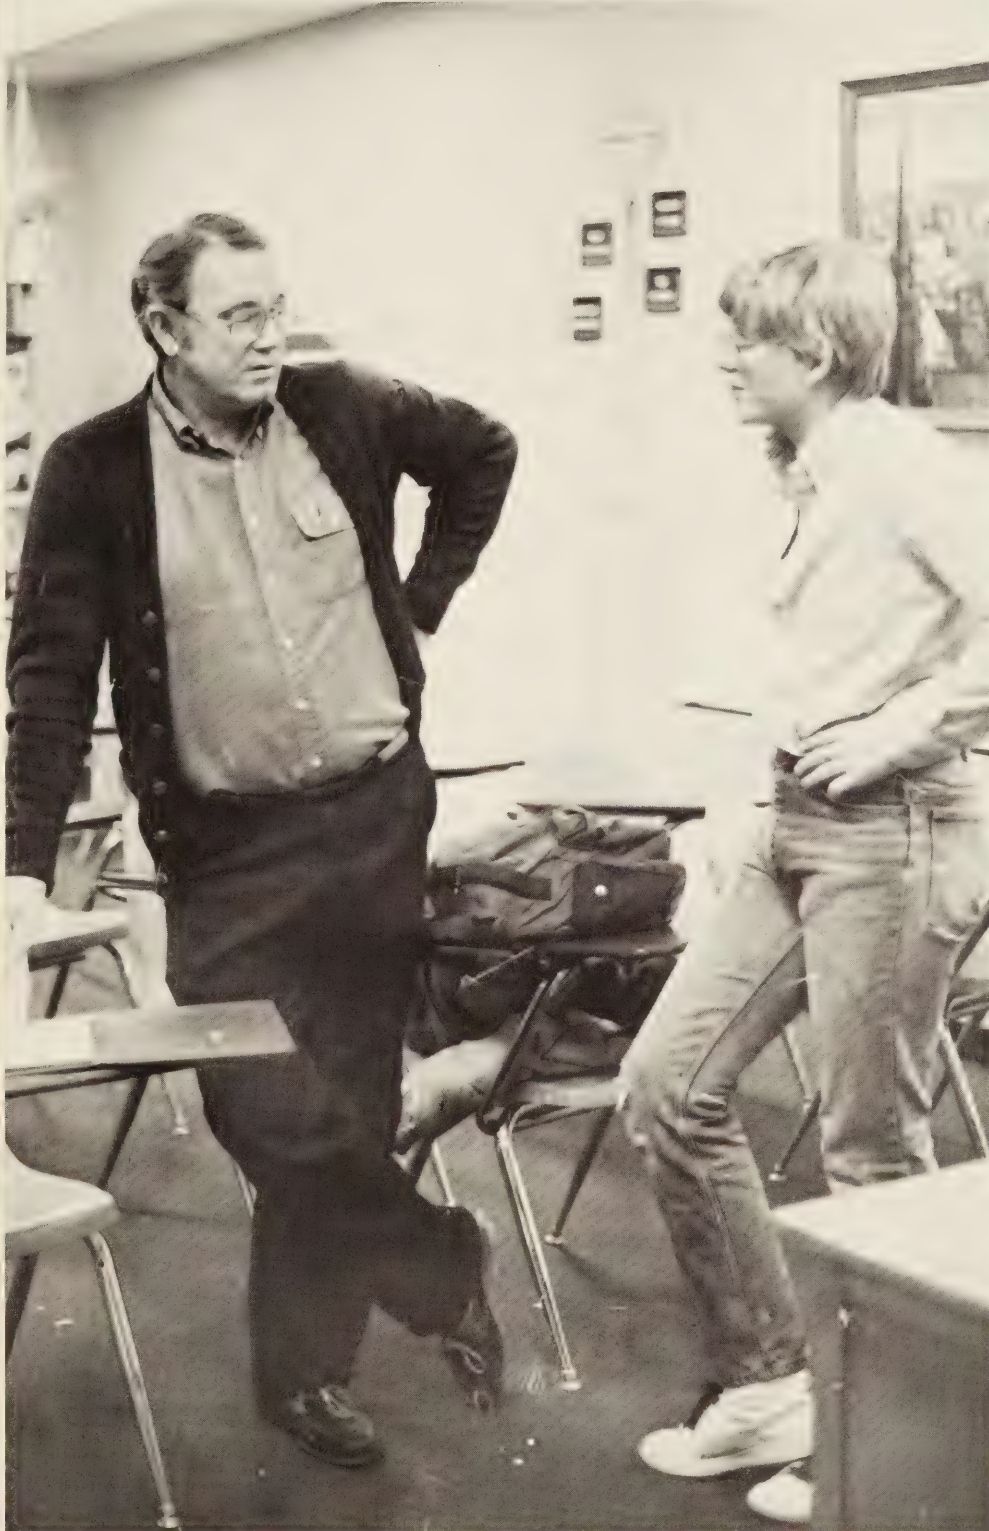

From the Outside

School was a bit more exciting, a bit more alive, thanks to the participation of visitors and support staff: guest speaker; a science scholar for the month; an advisor for forensics; those who got us here on time.

TRIVIA QUESTION: What does "forensics" mean?

JOEY PROVO, member of the forensics club, practices reading prose.

WITH STOP watch in hand, Mr. Brumfield makes notes to critique Joey's speech.

MR. BRUMFIELD, advisor to the forensics club, shares some advice with Jan Tilley.

~~well molly i'm probably not going to finish~~ ~~writing this period so i'll finish next o-kay?~~ i'm so glad we're becoming such good friends we are going to have so much fun this year (summer, beach, weed, dirt, boys, etc.) i'm really sorry my writing sucks but i'm trying to hide from the teacher. hold on... O.K
i'm back. you know what? i never knew how nice you were! Before when we used to fuss & fight it was awful. i think about it now and i just can't see what i found to fuss at you about. you're so so nice, sweet, & pretty no matter what anybody says. i can't wait until we go to the beach this summer that is going to be so much fun. you know what baby i think that we are going to get along so good. Usually people that have so much in common don't get along. But we are off to the best start in the world. About Ross Snellings go for it. He's one boy that will treat you right if anybody. i'll tell you how i know him later.
this is so sloppy. i think we both have finally found somebody who won't use us. friend wise? boyfriend wise. Molly baby i could never do anything to hurt you again, never.
Believe it or not i'm closer to you now than i ever got w/ Kim. Kim is such a user and i was just tired of being a victim. well baby i want you to know i'll always love you.

~~See ya in a sec,~~ ~~Love,~~

I lov ya,

Hi! Well I hope your first year at your first year is not ok, great!
Even if it has been rough for all of us "little eighth graders"! Lots of luck with the guys, you probably don't need it (though!) and anything else you might want to do for well I guess that's all - see ya this summer!

~~Molly~~
I want give you a lot but I've known for ages and I hope will be in some of my classes next year, see you this summer

I am glad we're friends this year! I hope we can put everything I did to you + what you did to me (w/ scott) in the past + we can forget it. I hope we can stay friends
+ maybe become better friends in the future.
Congrats on cheerleading. We're gonna have a blast at camp. Stay sweet + have a fun summer!

Love
Cassidy

I guess you know who this one's from. Yeah, the kid with the Camaro + the latest chelly slippers. Um - I know your year at J.M. has been rather disappointing but you can't say I didn't try + help. Hopefully things will get better in your "Freshman year. If not, they don't let it get to you. Life is all but too short!
I would use one of your parents' things right now but it's not the right time + place. Oh well. Anyway, I hope you'll try and have your next year and not let it depress you all the time. It was like that but somewhere, sometime you just change the line and say - "I'll remember all the good times and not the bad. Isn't that what's life really for?
Good that is all you do is try and stay the same sweet, pretty young lady that you are (and I'm) okay? I'm not working too hard. I'll stop by and say "Hi, Molly," but you know as tough as it is I may not stop.
Thanks for all the late talks. Maybe someday she'll see what she meant to me. Thanks again. Sorry this isn't a page but there's a lot more I'd like to say I could tell you. Just ask some day. Well, I'll leave with you all the memories.

Love Always
Kitty
